

Slippin' Away From You

From the One More Night Like This CD

I don't know where I'll be in a year or two
But you know that I'll be
Slippin' away from you, slippin' away from you
Slippin' away from you, away from you

It's so hard to see things that you know are true
But you know that I'll be
Slippin' away from you, slippin' away from you
Slippin' away from you, away from you
Away from you

Want to see your smiling face again
Want to see the very place I've been
Can it be the only one I've come to know
Will not let me be, will not let me go?

Old uncertain sections, I've got quite a few
But you know that I'll be
Slippin' away from you, slippin' away from you
Slippin' away from you, away from you

Maybe resurrections go from old to new
But you know that I'll be
Slippin' away from you, slippin' away from you
Slippin' away from you, away from you
Away from you

Want to see your smiling face again
Want to see the very place I've been
Can it be the only one I've come to know
Will not let me be, will not let me go?

I don't know where I'll be in a year or two
But you know that I'll be
Slippin' away from you, slippin' away from you
Slippin' away from you, away from you
Away from you
